DAKIN'S PURE VOLATILE EUCALYPTUS OIL.

Hongkong, October 3, 1891.

DISTILLED FROM THE LEAVES OF SELECTED

SPECIES OF EUCALYPTUS. TRUCALYPTUS OIL has long taken a foremost place as a "household remedy" in Australia. When applied externally it has a powerful stimulant and soothing action but doss not blister the most sensitive skin, and no application known will so quickly subdue the pain of muscular rhoumstum. Taken internally in small doses, it acts as a powerful stimulant and antipasmodic whilst its secondary action induces sleep. The penetrating agreeable vapor of the Oil is sedative, and when inhaled relieves Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh and Sore Throat. It is also a most powerful antiseptic and germicide, being three times as effectual as Carbolic Acid in preventing development of Bacteria, its uses in this direction being very numerous, The active properties of the Oil depend upon a Terpene called Eucalyptol and we guarantee this Oil, prepared specially for us, to contain the largest obtainable percentage of Eucalyptol and twice that of the ordinary Eucalyptus Oil of commerce. It can be used with great benefit in all Throat and Lung Affections, and its sedstive stimulant properties make it an invaluable application in Neuralgia, Rheumatiam, &c., whilst its powerful antiseptic and germicido action is well exhibited as a dressing in Wounds, Ulcers, Burns, Scalds, Sores, Ringworm, &c. oz, and 4 oz. bottles at cts. 50 and $1.00. Full Directions for use enclosed with each

CAUTION. Inferior samples of Eucalyptus Oil distilled from any kind of Eucalyptus leaf have little or no medical action and should be Upon being examined the man declared that though he was formerly a member of the organization he has long since renounced all connection with it. captured ere long. THE Japan Daily Advertiser tells the following, which seems a rather improbable story, about the Chinese Consul at Yokohama :- About twelve months ago a piece of plate won by Mr H. J. Gorman in a Y. A. R. C. competition was stolen from his residence. A month or so ago it was discovered in a Chinese dealer's store by the police, who were searching for some twenty-five bolts of flannel stolen from Mesers Morf & Co.'s godown. Both the flannel and the piece of plate were found in the store. The former was returned to Messrs. Morf. & Co., and Mr Gorman's prize was sent to the Chinese Consulate. where it now lies. The Consul demands the payment of $1.20, the amount paid 6 by the receiver to the thief, for a piece of plate worth $20 or $25, before restoring it to its rightful owner. There can be no shadow of doubt that the wily Chinaman knew very well, when he bought the prize for a twentieth part of its value that he was purchasing the proceeds of a theft, but the Chinese Consul evidently looks at the matter in a purely commercial light and is determined that his fraudulent countryman, who would get twelve months hari
